Revolution Show Corps Promoted to Division 2!

The Performance Portfolio of the British Youth Band Association is pleased to announce a further promotion at Academy Brass, Barnsley, South Yorkshire, on Saturday 19th July, 2008. No further promotions will be made in 2008.

With immediate effect, the unit listed is promoted as follows:-

Revolution Show Corps from Division 3 to Division 2.

Paul Cartwright, Chair of Performance said, "following an absolute soaking at Somer Sounds, Revolution were definitely back on track at Barnsley with their Rock and Rail production. Revolution have a suitable pedigree to take their rightful place in our higher divisions after a cracking performance which received consistent evaluations from the judges across a number of music and visuals captions. Well done to all members and staff on your achievement".

Corps Director Andrew Mitchell said, "We are all delighted for the members, it's a testament to the hard work we've put in, especially the rookie drum line and colourguard section. The new class will be an excellent challenge, our aim now is to make Finals, which would cap off a fantastic season... Rock & Rail !..... "

Paul went onto say, "this now concludes movement between divisions for 2008, which sets the scene for a challenging and competitive National Championships with a good balance across our divisions".
